Mountbatten Internship Programme One Year Paid Business Internships in London

The Mountbatten Internship Programme offers young Americans with a Bachelor's degree the opportunity to pursue a 12-month internship in the business environment of a London-based organization. The internships reflect different fields including investment banking and financial services, accounting, business administration, law, HR and executive search, marketing, research, and more. Our aim is to provide practical experience through participation and training in business, while also developing international and cross-cultural awareness through residence in Britain.

In addition to providing a global work environment for the intern, a central component of the Programme is the Certificate in International Business Practice [CIBP], which includes two units of a Cambridge Management Award offered by the University of Cambridge International Examinations ["CIE"]. The Certificate provides each intern with a personal record, and tangible evidence of a successful year of work experience and training.

Highlights:

1. Placement with a London sponsor company – Sponsors vary from large multi-national organizations to small businesses and reflect different fields including investment banking and financial services, accountancy, law, HR and executive search, marketing, research and more.
2. Certificate in International Business Practice [CIBP] – See below
3. Accommodation – Interns live in Central London with other program participants in fully furnished apartments, provided at no extra cost.
4. Monthly living allowance (stipend) – Interns receive a monthly living allowance of £615 per month.
5. Medical coverage – Interns receive full medical assistance and treatment under the British National Health Service.
6. Arrival orientation – A comprehensive two-day orientation is provided upon arrival in London. Typically, this includes setting up bank accounts, a lecture by the London police on safety, getting around the city, an overview of the CIBP etc.
7. Yearlong support from the Mountbatten London Office.

Dates: August 2007: Application deadline date March 31st, 2007;
March 2008: Application deadline date October 31st, 2007.

Cost: Registration Fee: $75 (non-refundable). Initial Deposit [of Participation Fee]: $775 (payable on acceptance to the Programme). Participation Fee [Remainder]: $2000 (payable when a placement is confirmed). Total Fees Payable: $2850.
